Notes:

The originals or certified documents are not required for application purposes.

Authentic documents issued abroad in compliance with the law of that country, and private documents drawn up outside Portugal, legalized by a foreign public official, are considered legalized under Portuguese law provided that the public official's signature is recognized by a diplomatic agent or Portuguese consulate in the respective State and the signature of this agent is authenticated with the respective white consular seal. In the case of documents emanating from signatory or adhering countries to the Hague Convention of October 5, 1961, the documents will be legalized by means of an apostille, pursuant to article 3 of the convention. Legalization procedures are not required for documents issued in countries of the European Union, partner countries of the European Economic Area and the European Free Trade Association, and the United Kingdom.

When the documents to be presented are written in a foreign language other than Spanish, English, French or Italian, the respective translation must be submitted, carried out under the terms provided for in the notarial law.

5. Application Procedure

Applications must be submitted via the online platform <https://sca.lisboa.ucp.pt/CandidaturasOnline/>. Applicants will receive an email confirming receipt of their application, with payment information (ATM reference for applicants residing in Portugal; applicants residing abroad without a Portuguese bank account should send an email to tesouraria.sede@ucp.pt requesting an IBAN to make the payment). In the case of bank transfers, applicants must provide proof of payment if the transfer is made within the last three days of the application period to the email address ma.iep@ucp.pt, so that the application can be considered and reviewed.

6. Application assessment, selection and results publication

The selection and ranking of the candidates will be made by the Program Coordinator, Professor Mónica Dias.

Criteria / Minimum Grade (scale 0-20)	Weight
Bachelor degree	50%
Curriculum Vitae	25%
Interview	25%

The decision to approve is reflected in the jury's final grade, expressed on a scale of 10-20 out of 20, which is the sum of the grades awarded to each component, after weighting. All students will be called for an interview. The purpose of the interview is to understand the candidate's motivations for attending the course, assess their professional background, and clarify aspects of their resume and admission exam. The invitation to the interview will be sent by email. After confirmation by the student, and in case of no-show, the application will be considered incomplete. The results will be communicated to students via email and an anonymized list will be made available at the Course Secretariat and Information Office of UCP. The results will be expressed as follows: Admitted/Conditionally Admitted/Not Admitted/Excluded. Conditional admission will be converted to definitive admission upon delivery of the degree completion certificate, to be made by the end of October. If this requirement is not met within the stipulated period, the application will be excluded, and no fees or charges paid will be refunded.
