

Mariana Tavares é licenciada em direito pela Universidade Católica Portuguesa – Centro Regional do Porto, LL.M pela Duke University e doutorada em direito pelo King’s College London.

Exerceu funções de referendária no Tribunal de Justiça da União Europeia e foi Consultora Internacional das Nações Unidas para questões de concorrência. Ocupou vários cargos de direção na Autoridade da Concorrência portuguesa e tem estado intimamente envolvida no desenvolvimento do direito e da política de concorrência europeia e internacional. Mariana Tavares foi presidente de vários grupos de trabalho da European Competition Network e da International Competition Network e também participou ativamente dos trabalhos do BRICS Competition Law and Policy Centre, OCDE, UNCTAD e do UE-China Trade project.

Os seus interesses de investigação incluem conflitos multijurisdicionais na ordem jurídica da União Europeia, a interface entre a Globalização e o desenvolvimento e aplicação do direito da concorrência.

É co-autora do livro “The Law and Politics of Global Competition” (Oxford University Press, 2022), com Christopher Townley e Mattia Guidi.

---

Mariana Tavares holds a PhD in Law from King’s College London, an LL.M from Duke University and a Law degree from Portuguese Catholic University, Regional Centre of Oporto.

She served as a law clerk (référéndaire) at the Court of Justice of the European Union and was a United Nations International Consultant for competition matters. She held several senior positions at the Portuguese Competition Authority and has been closely involved with the development of European and international competition law and policy. Mariana Tavares served as chair of several Working Groups of the European Competition Network and the International Competition Network and she also participated actively in the work of the BRICS Competition Law and Policy Centre, OECD, UNCTAD and the EU-China Trade Project.

Her research interests include multi-jurisdictional conflicts in the European Union legal order, the interface between Globalization and the development and application of competition law.

She is the co-author of the book “The Law and Politics of Global Competition” (2022, Oxford University Press), with Christopher Townley and Mattia Guidi.