

Francisco B. S. José Leandro earned a PhD in Political Science & International Relations from Catholic University of Portugal, an Advanced Diploma in International Law - Istituto per gli Studi di Politica Internazionale & Institute of International Humanitarian Law (Italy), an Advanced Diploma in Military Science – Instituto de Altos Estudos Militares of Lisbon (War College - IAEM), an University Degree in Law from Autónoma University of Lisbon, an University Degree in Military and Social Sciences -from Portuguese Army Military Academy (Lisbon), and a NATO Legal Advisor & Public Relations Advisor Diploma from the NATO School, Oberammergau (Germany). In 2015, he was awarded the Pearl River Delta Academy of International Trade and Investment Law Diploma (PRAIA) Peking University/IEEM.

Francisco Leandro was Chair Professor in International Law at Portuguese War College (IAEM); Visiting Professor at Army War College in Angola (ISEM); Resident Professor and Senior Researcher at National Defense Institute (IDN); Guest Professor at ISCSP-UTL (Lisbon), Guest Professor at University of Coimbra (Portugal), Visiting Professor at James Madison University (Italy), Institute of International Humanitarian Law (Italy), NATO School (Germany), European Security and Defense College (Madrid & Delft), European Police College (Portugal), Military-Voenna Akademia (Hungary), Modena Military Academy (Italy) and Visiting Professor at University of Macau, China (FSS/Communication Department). Besides his academic engagement, he worked as Portuguese Army Legal Advisor, as Portuguese Representative to the Council of Europe - Committee of Experts for the Development of Human Rights' Group on Human Rights of Members of the Armed Forces (DH-DEV-FA)(2005-2008), as EUROFOR Chief of Public Affairs Office, as European Union Battle Group 2011-12 Spokesperson (2008-2011), as Special Projects Manager, as Military Assistant to NATO Allied Joint Command Deputy Commander (2005-2008), and as United Nations Military Observer in former Yugoslavia (1995-1996).

Francisco Leandro taught various subjects throughout 18 years of academic teaching, managed different programs in international organisations, and supervised more than 25 theses. As a former Portuguese Army Officer, he was awarded the European Union Service Medal, United Nations Service Medal, D. Afonso Henriques Medal, 2nd Class of Military Value Medal, and Portuguese Army Distinguished Services Medal, and he also was awarded 11 national and international commendations. In 2014 and 2017, he was awarded Institute European Studies in Macau (IEEM) Academic Research Grant, which is a major component of the Asia-Europe Comparative Studies Research Project (AECSR).

In 2015, he has been awarded the 3rd APCEA prize as University of Saint Joseph team mentor, at the 5th APCEA Business Presentation Contest, organised by the Asia-Pacific Communication Exchange Association (APCEA), held at Hengqin Campus of University of Macau. In January 2016 he has joined a Post-Doctoral Program Research (Project: State Monopolies in China (geopolitical security studies perspective) - Reference: MYRG134 (Y1-L2)-FSH12-NTW) under the supervision of Professor Tak-Wing Ngo (FSS/UM) – One belt one road studies (concluded in September 2017).

---

Since 2014, he is a member of Journal of Management and Training for Industries editorial board (Japan). Since 2012, he is Assistant Professor at University of Saint Joseph – President of Faculty of Creative Industries Pedagogical Council (2014-2016), Secretary of Scientific Council (2016-2017), and Visiting Professor at Institute of European Studies in Macau (2013-2017). Since November 2016, he has been the Institute of Social and Legal Studies programme coordinator at Faculty of Humanities (USJ). He is married, with a permanent residence established in Macau. Francisco Leandro is a regular contributor to Newspaper Tribuna de Macau, TDM (Macau) commentator on international affairs (TDM), and an occasional contributor to China Daily HK Edition. Francisco Leandro is a member of the International Political Science Association (IPSA) since 2016.